ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

17 March 1959

Dear Paul:

My warm thanks together with those of the current Mid-Career Course members for a very instructive series of briefings, which I know will prove their worth in terms of the new understanding which they give our officers towards your function and your people.

It will be a few weeks before I get the course critique from the class, on the basis of which I will be able to give you chapter and verse as to how they reacted to the program. I think from our brief discussion Thursday afternoon you have a pretty fair reading of my own reactions.

In line with your suggestion that we plan future sessions during the first part of the week I propose Tuesday and Wednesday, the 16th and 17th of June for the next round, if agreeable to you.

Sincerely,

Ted

Edward F. Rivinus
Mid-Career Course Chairman
